

Genetically Modified Material WARRANTY

Authorised by: Simon Smith

Document
No: QA 37

Issue No.2

We Charles Faram & Company Limited hereby warrant that none of the products or materials currently supplied by us has been genetically modified.

We can also confirm that none of our current processes uses agents that could be made from material that has been genetically modified.

Currently there are no varieties of hops that have been genetically modified. If in the future a variety does become available Charles Faram & Company Limited will not supply it without customer consent.

Simon Smith

Simon Smith, Production Director